

COMPANY SPONSORSHIP

Weekend and Online MBA Programs

Sponsoring an employee in a Michigan Ross Part-Time MBA Program makes great sense for your company as well as your employee. Our program allows experienced professionals to gain a world-class MBA education while still working full time, with flexible formats specifically designed to meet the needs of the company as well as the student.

Key Benefits

- › Two different formats—Weekend or Online—allow your company and your employee to find the right balance of work and school.
- › The students you sponsor can immediately apply the lessons from their education to the workplace, improving their own performance as well as your company’s ROI.
- › Your company substantially enhances its talent pool, with current employees receiving a top-ranked MBA education.
- › Your company’s network will expand through exposure to other top-tier classmates as well as over 58,000 Michigan Ross Alumni.

Types of Potential Assistance

- › Percentage sponsorship of tuition and fees, from 20%-100%.
- › Specific dollar amount of sponsorship, capped per semester, year, course, or credit hour.
- › Company promise of sponsorship with time commitment to company after degree completion.

Program Details

- › The Weekend MBA Program is a two-year, lockstep, cohort model where students are on campus for classes every other weekend. It also includes some distance learning. Students take a set of required core courses and choose from a set of electives. Classes run from 4-9:10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday from 9:10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- › The Online MBA Program curriculum, delivered through the cutting-edge technology of our digital learning studios, includes live interactive classes, self-guided modules, and three in-person residences. Students take a set of required core courses and can choose from a variety of electives of their choosing. Most students will finish in two-and-a-half to three years.
- › Our Signature MAP course—involving an immersive, real world business challenge—is required in the Weekend and Online programs.
